Horse's Name _____

1. There is a non-refundable application fee of $250 to help defray administrative expenses.
2. A horse may be placed on Ryerss Farm's Waiting List at any age, but will not be offered a place until the horse is at least 20 years old.
3. When the offer of a stall is made to a horse's owner, Ryerss would like to have a decision within a week. If the offer is accepted, Ryerss would like to have the horse retired within 45 days.
4. If a horse who has been accepted does not arrive within 45 days there will be a $450. per month charge to keep that stall available.
5. At least 30 days before being admitted to Ryerss, all horses should have their shoes removed, unless they are needed for medical reasons and the owner is willing to accept the financial responsibility.
6. At the time of admittance to Ryerss Farm, the horse's ownership is transferred to Ryerss Farm. Ryerss becomes the sole owner and care provider. The former owner relinquishes all rights to said horse and the horse shall remain at Ryerss Farm until it expires. There is a one-time admittance fee for retiring a horse to Ryerss. The amount is reviewed annually and posted on the web site. (The admittance fee is not tax deductible. Anything over the current fee amount can be considered as a donation.)
7. Prior to final acceptance as a permanent resident of Ryerss Farm, each incoming horse will be subject to an agreed 30 day Mutual Probation Period between its owner and Ryerss Farm.
8. Upon admittance, former owners are expected to cover the cost of shoes (if required) and a donation to the cost of any medications needed for preexisting conditions. Any special supplements the owner wishes to provide for the horse are also at the owner's expense.
