Since 1888

America's first non-profit horse retirement and rescue farm

Founded in 1888, Ryerss Farm for Aged Equines is dedicated to providing care and shelter for over 75 retired and rescued horses.

Located on 383 beautiful acres of rolling hills in southeastern Pennsylvania, Ryerss provides a wonderful facility where horses can live out their golden years in comfort and dignity.

Your donation will be fully tax deductible as Ryerss Farm for Aged Equines is designated 501(c)(3) of the I.R.S. Code.
